

Public High School

School Profile

Today's Learners, Tomorrow's Leaders is the Motto of Los Angeles Unified School District. With about 150 High Schools, Los Angeles is the largest and most multicultural school district in California. Students will hear not only English, but also Spanish and other languages at school. All Educatius students will be placed in safe areas with a good selection of courses and activities. The district has an "All District Honor Band" that combines the best 300 musicians from the whole district that will play at special events, including Bandfest in Disneyland. The level of academic standards at LA Unified School District range from high to low, but Educatius students will be placed in medium to high academic standard High Schools.
