School Profile

Ursuline High School has a tradition of academic excellence demonstrated by Ursuline students who are named National Merit Finalists and Commended Scholars as well as by the rigorous standards of the eight Advanced Placement programs offered in the school and by the high percentage of Ursuline students that continue their education at colleges and universities after graduation. Performing arts play a very important role at Ursuline and a wide variety of activities are offered to the students. For example there is a Colorguard and Majorettes band performing at sports meets and other events in the school as well as in the local community.
