A DIVERSE PRIVATE CATHOLIC SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Rosemont is an academically stimulating school with a Catholic ethos that encourages girls to live their faith in the ordinary events of every day. Christian faith is the reason why each individual girl in Rosemont is respected and valued, whether she is a believer or not. Their educational mission draws life from ideals that are sincerely Catholic; these same ideals are open to people with a wide array of beliefs and backgrounds.

Students who choose Rosemont value academic results. This school suits students who want to take ownership of their learning, set goals, give back to their community and develop people skills. Their diverse range of opportunities encourages students to develop their personal potential. Student leadership opportunities are in abundance in Rosemont; these include student council, green school, team captains, prefects, gaisce awards and a variety of sports and extra-curricular activities.

Entrepreneurship and 21st century skills are developed in conjunction with European Youth Parliament, Young Environmentalist Awards, Build-a-Bank, TY Entrepreneur STEM Camp and many other competitions. There is a positive learning environment in Rosemont's purpose-built school which has mindfully and expertly architected to provide a flourishing learning environment.

DUBLIN

Dublin is a small capital city with a big reputation and is renowned for being one of the most lively and welcoming cities in the world! Youthful and cosmopolitan, it is the perfect location choice for international high school students who want to experience Irish life in an exciting fast-paced environment. With charming cobbled streets, quirky boutiques and world-class attractions and museums, Dublin offers endless possibilities for fun and learning. It's also easy for students to explore outside the city, thanks to excellent transport connections both to the seaside and to other Irish cities. The city's beautiful eastern coastline is the perfect place to enjoy long walks, fish & chips and breathtaking views.
